

Opening Doors Toronto 2020

Crossing new Thresholds: Emerging Doors to Care

AGENDA – Monday February 24th

This year's theme builds on the Opening Doors Toronto 2019 conference theme, HIV, the New Basics: Building our future from a strong foundation. Last year's conference focused on the reality that HIV prevention, engagement and care are drastically different than in the early years of the epidemic.

Building on this understanding, we also know that this 'new basics' or new reality of HIV today means that new, additional and often complex needs have arisen. We need to individually and collectively build deeper understanding of what emerging doors to care are needed and how to support individuals to cross these new thresholds to get the care and support required for optimal health.

- 9:30 - 10:15 a.m.     Opening/ welcoming remarks
- 10.15 - 11:30 a.m.   Panel: Intergenerational issues and perspectives to care.
Personal stories aimed at increasing individual and collective understanding of how HIV and/or age and length of time living with HIV influences optimal health and access to care.
